FALL-WINTER 2006 ART GUIDE IS NOW AVAILABLE

(Wilmington, Del.—October 17, 2006)—The Art Guide, a semi-annual pocket-sized resource to the art scene in Delaware and nearby Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland is now available for free to the public. The full scope of art offerings are featured including art exhibits, concerts, independent films, arts festivals, poetry readings, and theater productions. Whatever your interest—from traditional art forms to contemporary work—there is a wide variety of art experiences to explore and something sure to please.

The Art Guide contains articles on specific art events; art listings by geographic location, including address and phone numbers; maps showing their locations; and a calendar of current arts events. It is available at cultural and tourist locations throughout the region. To request a free copy of the Art Guide, visit www.artguidedelaware.com. Sponsors of the Art Guide include the Delaware Division of the Arts, Delaware General Assembly, Delaware River and Bay Authority, The News Journal, and the Greater Wilmington Convention and Visitors Bureau.

The Delaware Division of the Arts is an agency of the State of Delaware. Together with its advisory body, the Delaware State Arts Council, the Division administers grants and programs that support artists and arts organizations, educate the public, increase awareness of the arts, and integrate the arts into all facets of Delaware life. Funding for the Division programs is provided by annual appropriations from the Delaware State Legislature, and grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.
